Cats vs. DOGS

By Hailey Fisher

Some dogs may drool, but cats aren't the ones to rule. Or are they? There has always been the issue of CATS VS. DOGS, and neither group has seemed to be the one to come out on top for real. Dogs are cool and so are cats, but it seems that more people have dogs throughout the United States. So dogs would win, but lots of homes have more than one cat, and if you count it cat/dog per home in America, the cats would be the winner. Another draw. The debate continues.

Will It Blend?

Hi! Why is the title of this article "Will It Blend?" Well, if you don't know then search "will it blend" on your search engine and click on "Will it Blend? presented by Blend Tec." Then, the site window will come up. Click on the numbers and it will bring up different videos you can watch.

I LIKE the episode where he blends Bic Lighters; it turns out that they explode. That particular episode is on page 5, and once you watch it, please don't try this at home. So watch this hysterical web show called Will It Blend.

Which one is cuter?

by Anna Schale

These are pictures of cute, adorable, common household pets. In the next Dutchbuzz issue. I will be telling you which photo has won the cutest pet picture. Meanwhile I will be surveying.

Ms. Koenig

by Anna Schale

I was interviewing Ms. Koenig, the 5th grade English teacher, as many of you know, about her favorite hobby or thing to do. Her favorite thing to do is taking hikes with her dog, Ophelia. Ophelia is a very obedient blue Heeler dog that she loves dearly. Ms. Koenig keeps Ophelia on her bed and close to her side. Ms. Koenig says Ophelia's often sitting on the couch waiting and waiting for her to come home. Ms. Koenig and her dog went to the Big Horn Mountains in Wyoming last summer and took a hike along the mountains and saw many animals such as moose, marmots, and other animals. The photo is of the day Ms. Koenig found Ophelia!

A local survey by Henry Kane

OU or OSU, which is better? I asked Cooper in fourth grade and he said, "OU,". Then I asked Nathan and he said, "OSU,". After asking many people it came up like this.

OU

15

OSU

25

So more people like OSU than OU.

4th Grade basketball!!!!!!!!!!

by Cooper Williamson

The Holland Hall team 2 ended up with a total of 6 wins and 3 losses. The team 1 ended up with a total of 5 wins and 4 losses. The team 1 team had possibly been the second best team in the league. Both teams did very well, and they deserved a medal and they did get medals. It was a great season for all of our basketball teams.

Will Sam Bradford go to the pro's?

By Cooper W.

On January 8, 2009, OU had an upsetting loss against the Florida Gators. The score of the game was 24-14. Sam Bradford, the OU quarterback, was doing well. But Florida's quarterback, Tim Tebow, was just doing better. Tebow ran 122 yards. At one point OU didn't score, but they were on the 1 yardline twice.

!Baggy Ice Cream! A Famous 4th Grade Recipe Collected by Cooper Williamson

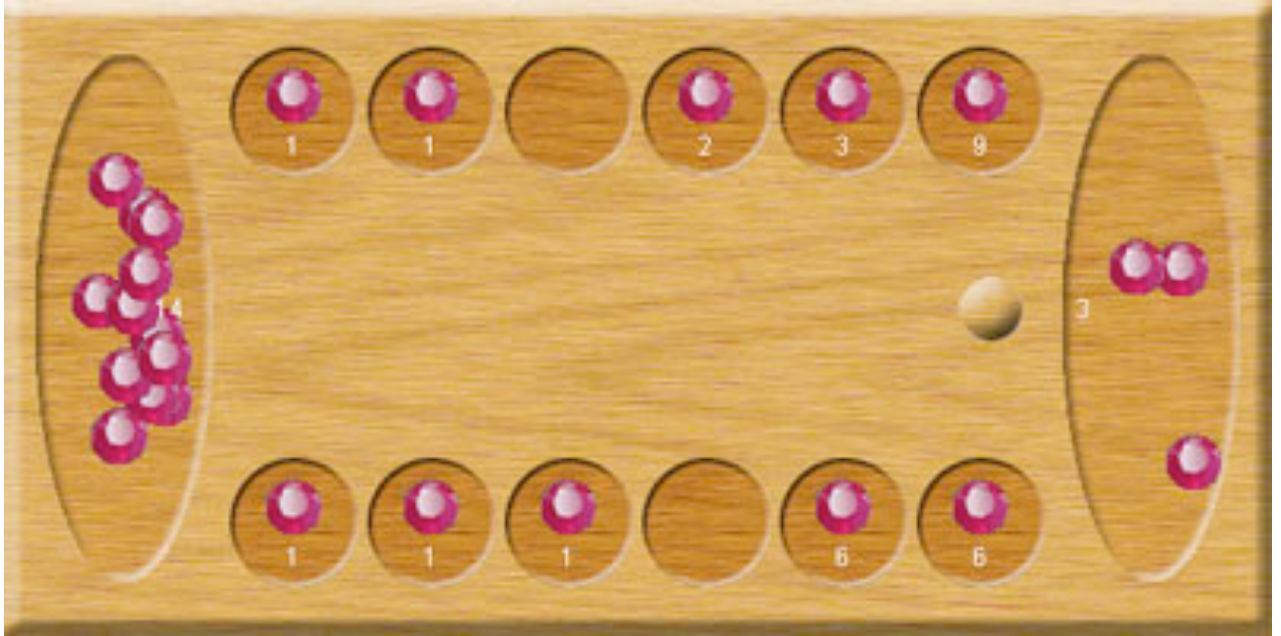

First, get a pint-sized double Ziplock baggy. Pour 1 cup of milk into the bag. Also pour in 1 tablespoon of vanilla. Chocolate or strawberry syrup is optional. Get a gallon-sized baggy and fill it with ice cubes and pour in some salt. Put the pint sized baggy in the gallon sized baggy and then shake for 15 to 20 minutes.

THEN EAT!

MANCALA

Mancala board. Hint: Collect the most stones at your end of the board!

Now, the best concert ever!

The best concert ever was Coldplay at Ford Center in OKC. Jack Crawford and Cooper Williamson were there and they saw them play live. "It was so loud the floor shook sometimes," said Jack and Cooper. The concert was a combination of two albums, X and Y and Viva La Vida. They played 21 songs. At the end, plastic butterflies came down. There were balls that showed live video.

Mrs. Durling

By Grace Campbell

When I met with Mrs. Durling, I found out about some things that she likes. For example, she really loves to play the game Pictionary and eat Italian food at Carrabba's. Her favorite color is purple, and she enjoys searching things on google in her spare time. When she is playing with her kids, she loves to play with playdough. Her two favorite places in the world are Costa Rica and Hawaii. She loves meerkats, and her favorite book is Harry Potter. Her favorite movies are Star Wars & Lord of the Rings. She enjoys playing in water in the summer, and loves the Stargazer Lilly (flower). But out of all of those she loves to teach astronomy.

Ask Froggy
Ask Froggy

Dear Herman,

I'm having trouble with my hamster; he won't move or run on his wheel. Can you help me fix that,

Hamster problem guy who can't think of anything to do with it, Hammy.

Dear Hammy,

I can't help you because I'm pretty sure it's dead, but hanks for writing.

Herman

Giving pet advice when all hope is lost.

Dear Froggy,

My pet rock seems sad. what do I do?

Sincerely,

Rocky

Dear Rocky,

Don't worry, no offense, but pet rocks are hardheaded. Don't worry.

Sincerely,

Froggy

Dear Herman,

I like pie, but the store that we go to ran out of pie and won't get any until tomorrow. Please give me some advice.

Thanks,

Pieless Perry.

Dear Pieless Perry,

I hope you don't eat pie every day because it's not healthy. Please take my advice,

Herman.

Dear Froggy,

My parents say that I can't have a dog until I get them a sofa.

What do I do?

Sincerely,

Sofa Loafer

Dear Sofa Loafer,

I understand your trouble. What to do? Get a Saint Bernard and a ride home. Exaggerate about how comfy it is to lounge with the dog until your sofa loafing parents say you can keep him.

Sincerely,

Froggy

Dear Froggy,

My pet house has been awful quiet lately. What should I do?

Sincerely,

House Owner

Dear House,...go see a psychiatrist.

Sincerely,

Froggy

Dear Froggy,

My cat is always scratching me, and I only hold her by the tail. Please help.

Sincerely,

Tail boy

Dear Tail,

How long is the tail of this cat? Write back when you can answer that.

Sincerely,

Froggy

Froggy is a 3000000000 year old frog-man. He lives in a submarine under the ocean with lots of frozen flyscicles. How DutchBuzz and Froggy got connected, no one knows. He enjoys other people, but they all run away screaming for their mothers. We don't know about Herman.

SUMMER VACATION!!!!

When it is summer vacation, people will be going to exciting places such as Florida and California or Washington D.C. and other places. I asked a few people about where they're going....

- ❖ Mrs. Hobbs is going to Atlanta and New York City.
- ❖ Jack is going to Dallas.
- ❖ Tommy is going to Florida
- ❖ Henry and Aaron are going to the British Virgin Islands.

And those are some good examples .

HAVE A GOOD VACATION!

!Smencils!

by Jack Crawford

Smencils are the best writing tool since the mechanical pencil. They are scented pencils that come in tons of scents. I have lots of Smencils including Root Beer and Grape. There are also Christmas scents like Candy Cane and Sugar Cookie. Some people like them, and others hate them. Miss Malloy can't stand all the different scents and Alex Fleckenstein almost got sick when smelling Root Beer.

These are the results of the Smencils. Root Beer wins!
