The School

Holland Hall is an independent, coeducational, Episcopal day school that provides a challenging, comprehensive educational experience grounded in a rigorous liberal arts, college preparatory curriculum that promotes critical thinking and life-long learning. The 320 students attending ninth through twelfth grade abide by an honor code. Holland Hall's 38 Upper School faculty members have an average 21 years teaching experience and 66% hold advanced degrees. Ninety-nine percent of Holland Hall graduates attend post high school-graduate educational opportunities.

Holland Hall has been recognized by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education for superior college preparation.

Facilities

Holland Hall's 162-acre south Tulsa campus includes creeks and ponds, an outdoor classroom, an eight-lane, all-weather track, and two cross-country trails loop through the woods. A dozen tennis courts and fields for football, baseball, softball, field hockey, and soccer are also located on campus. Holland Hall's facility includes All Saints Chapel, seven science labs, four computer labs, three libraries containing some 60,000 volumes, and the 70,000-square-foot Walter Arts Center designed for use by students and numerous arts organizations.

Accreditation and Membership

Holland Hall is accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Southwest, is recognized by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, is a member of the National Association of Independent Schools, National Association for College Admission Counseling, Great Plains Association for College Admission Counseling, Association of College Counselors in Independent Schools, College Board, National Association of Episcopal Schools and since 1968, Cum Laude Society.

STUDENT MATRICULATION

The 73 graduates of the class of 2016 attend 41 different institutions in 19 states. Historically, 65% of Holland Hall seniors attend college out of state.

CHANGES IN ACADEMIC STATUS

In adhering to the Statement of Principles of Good Practice of The National Association of College Admission Counselors (NACAC), Holland Hall is required to "report any significant change in the candidate's academic status of qualifications, including personal conduct record, between the time of evaluation and graduation if requested by an institution's application." This might include a dramatic drop in grades, disciplinary proceedings, or a significant change in a student's enrollment.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

It is Holland Hall's policy to report the following disciplinary categories generally used in the upper school: general probation (if the nature of the incident involves risk to self or others), suspension, or dismissal from Holland Hall. For the full statement, please refer to the Holland Hall College Counseling Handbook at www.hollandhall.org/academics/college-counseling.
